Officer Reports:

Councilmember Garberg

- No report.

Councilmember Shaffer

- Reported nothing to report.

Councilmember Tomczik

- Reported he will report on organics recycling next month.
- Reported he has received a lot of calls.

Councilmember Marks

- Reported he has been communicating with Met Council on the Sewer Availability Charge (SAC) paperwork. In the past, our city inspector has completed the paperwork, but our new building inspection company refuses to do it. He said he thinks he will do the quarterly reporting but needs Craig Kile or John Pettengill to tell him of new building or destruction permits.
- Reported he has received written approval for the 236 Peninsula I/I work. He has been in contact with Pipe Services and they are just waiting for the weather to cooperate.

Mayor Holter

- Reported CenturyLink is going to install fiber optic cable in the City.

Unfinished Business

- None.

New Business

- Reported there is a buyer for the Chateau. The buyer is a caterer and wants to continue with the same type of business. We are starting the process of initiating the paperwork for a liquor license.
